

We are pleased to be recruiting for a Graduate Site Engineer.

Based at our site in Ashford, but you may be required to visit our other sites in the South East.

Duties will include, but not limited to:

Production of Task Briefing Sheets

Carries out associated briefings

Carries out Safety Inspections

Hazard Identification

Setting Out

The provision of sketches detailing the setting out information installed

Maintain survey equipment including registers of equipment and testing regimes

Ability to read and determine information from drawings, schedules and specification

Maintaining accurate records – Daily Diary, photographs, records of site discussions

Measures actual materials used and reconciles with theoretical measure

Works to Weekly Programme – drafted by other – and marks up progress achieved weekly

Production of accurate daily diary of resources, including labour, plant, materials, subcontractors and outputs.

Who we're looking for:

Ability to clearly communicate the requirements of a safe system of work to ensure that these are followed accurately.

Capable of taking ownership of tasks and communication outcomes

Strong work ethic

Able to work on own initiative

Holds a current driving license and CSCS card

Setting out techniques

Reads and understands drawings and schedules

Strong understanding of construction tolerances

Able to take off and schedule material quantities accurately

SSSTS/SMSTS desirable but not essential.

Monday – Friday

Immediate start available.

Please apply by sending your CV to info@kentstructures.co.uk